This Week We Offer A Special Prayer For... ...all those sitting examinations

Lord, pour out your Spirit of Wisdom on these students: help them to remain calm, to attend carefully to the questions asked,
 to think clearly, to remember accurately, and to express themselves well.

Grant that they may reflect on the best of the work they have done and the best of the teaching they have received.
 Accept their best efforts in these examinations and in the great test of life on earth.
 May your love be upon them, O Lord, as they place all their trust in you.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Life Lessons

A Church group was discussing different ways to pray when one man remarked "I do some of my best praying whilst I'm driving".
 In a quiet voice, his wife agreed. "I also do my best praying when you're driving dear!"

Parish Envelopes

The new boxes of Envelopes for your parish contribution are now available and in the process of being delivered to all current contributors. If you do not have a supply of envelopes & wish to use this method, members of the Finance Committee will be available to issue envelopes after Masses on weekend 10-11 June.
 The weekly envelopes is one of the methods by which you can contribute to the running costs of Nenagh Parish, other methods include, pouch collection at weekend masses, on line donations via parish website <https://nenaghparish.ie/>, Tap to Go Terminal at rear of St Mary of the Rosary Church or by direct contribution to the parish office or any of the priests. We would like to thank all our parishioners who continue to support. It is greatly appreciated. 2022 audited accounts will shortly be available & a summary published in the weekly newsletter.

The Most Holy Trinity

A Prayer Before An Examination

Lord you are my friend and you are with me today and always.
 You have blessed my life with many gifts and talents.
 As the exams approach I feel nervous so I pray for your peace.
 Calm my mind so that I can think clearly and write down what I know.
 Help me to remember what I have learned and to do my best.
 Lord your loving presence surrounds me.
 Help me to trust that you will guide me.
Amen

A Special Message for Exam Students

From Nenagh Parish to all our wonderful Junior and Leaving Certificate students across the Odhran Pastoral Area, we extend every good wish as you begin your state examinations in the coming week.

In times like these, it is crucial to remember that success is not solely measured by your exam results. While they are important, they do not define who you are as individuals. Each one of you possesses unique talents and strengths that extend beyond the confines of an exam hall.

Know that the entire Pastoral Area community stands behind you, cheering you on every step of the way. We believe in your abilities and have faith in your potential. You have our unwavering support, and we are here to celebrate your accomplishments, offer a shoulder to lean on, and provide guidance whenever needed.

Trinity Sunday is a significant feast day in the liturgical calendar of many Christian denominations.
 It falls on the Sunday following Pentecost and is celebrated to honor the doctrine of the Holy Trinity, which is central to our Christian belief.

The Holy Trinity refers to the Christian understanding of God as three distinct persons—God the Father, God the Son (Jesus Christ), and God the Holy Spirit—while still being one God. It is a complex and profound mystery that is not easily comprehended by human understanding. The Trinity is often depicted as a threefold symbol, such as an equilateral triangle or three interlocking circles, representing the unity and equality of the three persons in one God.

The observance of Trinity Sunday provides an opportunity for Christians to reflect on and contemplate the nature of God as revealed in the Bible. It serves as a reminder of the divine nature of God and the interrelationship between the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. It also highlights the importance of community and unity within the Christian faith.
