This Week We Offer A Special Prayer To ...to help people change their driving behaviour

Holy Mother, hear our prayer,
Keep us in your loving care,
Whatever the perils of the way,
Let us not add to them this day.
So to our caution and attention,
We add a prayer for your protection,
To beg God's blessing on this car,
To travel safely near and far.
Amen

Life Lessons

To make it possible for everyone to attend Sunday Mass, we are going to have a special No Excuse Sunday.

- There will be a special section with lounge chairs for those who feel that our pews are too hard.
- Eye drops will be available for those with tired eyes from watching TV late Saturday night.
- We will provide hearing aids for those who can't hear the celebrant and cotton wool for those who think he's too loud!
- Doctors and nurses will be in attendance for those who plan to be sick on Sunday.

Diocese of Killaloe Assembly of Priests

Killaloe Diocese

Annual Clergy in-service

Sunday 15 to Wednesday 18 October

A note from Bishop Fintan:

The Priests of the diocese will be on their Annual Diocesan In-Service in Loughrea beginning on the evening of Sunday 15th of October until the afternoon of Wednesday 18th of October. This is a very important time for priests to be together and to engage in on-going personal and pastoral development. It is also a time for the priest of the diocese to respond the synodal invitation of Pope Francis for priests to engage ministry in a discerned and reflective way. It is hoped that all priests in active ministry would be completely free from pastoral engagements during this time.

Should the need arise a panel of retired priests have kindly agreed to provide emergency cover during these days. In the unlikely event where this cover might not be available we are hoping where possible, that funerals would be suspended until priests returns form their in-service on Wednesday afternoon. In parishes where training has taken place a Liturgy of the Word will replace the daily Mass.

Nenagh - 16-18 October 2023

Our priests will be away Monday 16, Tuesday 17 and Wednesday 18 October so there will no 8am or 11am Mass but there will be Liturgy of the Word with Holy Communion at 8am & 11am on each of those days. In the event of a bereavement on any of those days, please contact the Funeral Director in the first instance.

Synod on Synodality in Rome

This week the Synod continued in Rome with the commencement of the next module of discernment entitled. "A communion that radiates: How can we be more fully a sign and instrument of union with God and of the unity of all humanity?" In the language of the Second Vatican Council the Synod reflected on the mission of the Church to be in Christ, the sign and instrument of unity with God and all humanity. In the introductions the participant were reminded that communion is the beauty of diversity in the midst of unity. That communion exists in concrete, tangible realities such as "the life that offers bread for the hungry, healing for the suffering, rest for the troubled". Thirdly, communion was presented as the participation that ties us to others across time and space. In short it is open for everybody, everywhere. Their discussions, prayer and discernment were to be focuses on the question of a dignified communion where the Church encounters Christ who already sits at table with the poorest. Included in the topics for discernment were migrants, those who suffer abuse, those who are not accepted and welcomed for whatever reason and the issue of sexual identity.
