Prayer on lighting your Peace Candle

At home on Tuesday 7th November

God of love
We pray for peace
in our world,
and an end to war.
Instead of hatred,
let there be love.
Shelter your children
and protect us.
Guide us and keep us
from harm,
so we can build a world
of love and live our lives
in peace. Amen.

of Pelagianism (the idea that Adam's sin was his own and that his descendants did not inherit the sin) and Manichaeism (the idea that the world is inherently evil) that threatened the Western Church. Leo's tenacity in protecting the full deposit of faith proved him to be a defender of orthodox Catholic teachings.

Leo was also an instrumental figure in resolving a doctrinal controversy concerning the relationship between Jesus' humanity and divinity. His letter, known for its profound theological insight, clarified the Church's stance on the matter: Christ was one person with inseparable human and divine natures, which is known as the hypostatic union.

Pope St. Leo not only fought against heresies within the church; he also showed remarkable courage upon approaching Attila the Hun in 452. Pope St. Leo met Attila outside of Rome to negotiate peace and avoid the sacking of Rome. While the details of that meeting are unknown, Pope St. Leo showed incredible courage to face one of the most fearsome figures of his time.

Leo the Great passed away on November 10, 461. His influence on the Church was so profound that Pope Benedict XIV declared him a Doctor of the Church in 1754. With nearly 100 sermons and 150 letters preserved to this day, his teachings continue to serve as a foundation for our understanding of our faith.

November Offerings

Envelopes for the November Offerings are now available in both churches.

This Week We Offer A Special Prayer For ...we who mourn

You can shed tears that they have gone,
or you can smile because they have lived.
You can close your eyes and pray that they will come back,
or you can open your eyes and see all they have left.
Your heart can be empty because you can't see them,
or you can be full of the love you shared.
You can turn your back on tomorrow
and live yesterday,
or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.
You can remember only that they have gone,
or you can cherish their memory and let it live on.
You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back.
Or you can do what they would want:
smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

Amen

Life Lessons A Child's Prayer

Dear God, please take care of my daddy and my mammy and my sister and my brother and my doggy and my cat and me. Oh, please take care of yourself, God. If anything happens to you, we're gonna be in a big mess.

IN NOVEMBER...
WE REMEMBER
