What Is Divine Mercy Sunday?

The story of Divine Mercy Sunday, also known as 'the Feast of the Divine Mercy,' is thousands of years old. However, the official recognition of the day was only authenticated by the Vatican in 2000. Pope John Paul II declared the Sunday after Easter to be called "Divine Mercy Sunday." Since that declaration, it has been marked in the General Roman Calendar as a religious observance celebrated by Catholics worldwide. The significance of the day can be attributed to St. Faustina Kowalska, a Polish nun who experienced visions from Christ himself. Born in 1905, she served her parish well and communed with Jesus on several occasions where he communicated with her that he wished to be "a refuge and a shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners." St. Faustina, also known as the 'Secretary of Divine Mercy,' died in 1938 in Krakow at age 33 after suffering from Tuberculosis.

Divine Mercy Sunday is a space specifically designated for those who feel unworthy of God's love and Jesus's acceptance. In a vision, he told St. Faustina, "I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy." Divine Mercy Sunday, from its advent, has been a source of reconciliation with faith and God's mercy. It provides a specific day on which people from all walks of life can humble themselves before God, & ask for his mercy, love, & forgiveness, which he grants to all those willing to ask for it. It is also about forgiveness & mercy, how Jesus offered his to us, & how we should act in kind throughout our lives.

This Week We Offer A Special Prayer For ...brighter days ahead

Heavenly Father, as the weather warms up in many parts of the world and spring turns to summer, we ask for brighter days ahead.

Please renew our hearts and restore our minds so that all worried thoughts fade away.

Breathe new life into us again and fill us with hope that comes from knowing Your Son, Jesus.

For in Him, we live and move and breathe.
He is the fullness of joy.

Thank You for the sun that rises each new day and for Your mercies that follow.

We turn our faces to You today, Father, and ask for the light of Your love to shine upon us.

In Jesus' holy name.

Amen.

Thank You

Sincere thanks to all who donated eggs to Adapt House, Limerick. Just know you brought some kindness and cheer to vulnerable mothers and children. May God bless your giving hearts.

Arra Historical Society - Field Trip: Sunday 7 April

Dr Siobhan Geraghty will be leading a nature walk through the woods at Garrykennedy and NOT at Castletough Deerpark Wood as previously advertised. Unfortunately the woods are not suitable for a walk at this time due to felling work which is currently taking place in the area.

We will meet at the green area beside the old quay at 11 am. The Eircode for Larkins which is a few meters to our meeting point is E45 W729.

Please note: Trip is subject to cancellation due to adverse weather, please wear suitable clothing and footwear and note that the trip will be conducted over uneven ground in places.

This is not taking place at the lakeside park and woods (where the playground is) but the forest nearby. There is parking available within the forest.
