This Week We Offer A Special Prayer ...The Memorare Prayer to the Blessed Virgin

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help, or sought your intercession, was left unaided.

Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto you, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother.
To you do I come, before you I stand, sinful and sorrowful.
O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in your mercy hear and answer me.

Amen

Parish Envelopes

The new boxes of Envelopes for your parish contribution are now available and in the process of being delivered to all current contributors.
If you do not have a supply of envelopes & wish to use this method please contact the Parish Office, members of the Parish Finance Committee will be available to issue envelopes after Masses on weekend 8-9 June.
The weekly envelope is one of the methods by which you can contribute to the running costs of Nenagh Parish. Other methods include:

- pouch collection at weekend Masses
- on line donations via parish website https://nenaghparish.ie/

- Tap to Go Terminal at rear of St Mary of the Rosary Church
- By direct contribution to the Parish Office or any of the priests.

We would like to thank all our parishioners who continue to support. It is greatly appreciated. The 2023 audited accounts will be available in the coming months, and a summary published in the weekly newsletter.

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

And know that I am with you always; yes, to the end of time

Today's Gospel: The Great Commission

Jesus called his first disciples in the Galilee district.
Now Galilee is the place where he gives his final instructions to them. Jesus speaks of his authority, given to him by God, "I have been given all authority in heaven and on earth." He is about to give his disciples three commands:

- "Go, then, to all peoples everywhere and make them my disciples" – this means that all people everywhere must hear the gospel message.
- "baptise them in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit" – from the very beginning, Christians were baptised as a sign of forgiveness of sin and entry into the church.
- "teach them to obey everything I have commanded you" – the disciples need to pass on Jesus' teaching and instruct new Christians how to live as believers.

Finally, Jesus ends with a promise, "And I will be with you always, to the end of time." Jesus has given his disciples an enormous task, but he is not leaving them without help. He will shortly be returning to Heaven, but will remain with them in spirit.

Diocese of Killaloe - Safeguarding Month

May is Safeguarding month in the Diocese of Killaloe. In the Diocese we have a safeguarding committee, made up of lay members and Diocesan personnel, they meet approx. 4 times a year and who work along side the Director of Safeguarding in ensuring safeguarding standards are maintained in the parishes as well as producing and updating policy, plans and guidance. On the safeguarding page of the Diocesan website www.killaloe-diocese.ie/safeguarding you will find our safeguarding plans, policies and guidance.

A Note About Trinity Sunday...

Trinity Sunday is the first Sunday after Pentecost in the Western Christian liturgical calendar, however, in Eastern Christianity there is no specific day set aside to celebrate the Christian doctrine of the Trinity. The Eastern Churches point out that they celebrate the Trinity every Sunday. Westerners do as well, we just set aside a special feast day for the purpose. In the West, Trinity Sunday, officially called "The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity," is one of the few celebrations of the Christian Year that commemorates a reality and doctrine rather than an event or person. Holy Trinity Sunday is celebrated on the first Sunday following Pentecost in most of the liturgical churches in Western Christianity. It is a solemn celebration of the belief in the revelation of one God, yet three divine persons. It was not uniquely celebrated in the early church, but as with many things the advent of new, sometimes heretical, thinking often gives the Church a moment in which to explain and celebrate its own traditions; things it already believes and holds dear. In the early 4th century when the Arian heresy was spreading, the early church, recognizing the inherent Christological & Trinitarian implications, prepared an Office of Prayer with canticles, responses, a preface, & hymns, to be recited on Sundays to proclaim the Holy Trinity. Pope John XXII (14th century) instituted the celebration as a feast for the entire Church; it became a solemnity after the liturgical reforms of Vatican II.

This month we honoured,
Mary, the Mother of God
