This Week We Offer A Special Prayer For ...all those involved in sports

O God, you gave us bodies—as well as minds and hearts—with which to praise and worship you.

Our sports and exercises are a fitting use of gifts and talents you have given us.

Bless our workouts and the games we play, and those with whom we exercise or compete.

Give us strength, endurance, courage and agility as we compete or train.

Keep us safe and healthy as we celebrate our physical and mental skills in sport.

Amen

Profile: St Benedict: Feast Day - 11 July

St. Benedict (born c. 480 ce, Nursia [Italy]—died c. 547, Monte Cassino; feast day July 11, formerly March 21) was the founder of the Benedictine monastery at Monte Cassino and father of Western monasticism; the Rule that he established became the norm for monastic living throughout Europe. In 1964, in view of the work of monks following the Benedictine Rule in the evangelization and civilization of so many European countries in the Middle Ages, Pope Paul VI proclaimed him the patron saint of all Europe.

NB: These activities can be carried out at any time of the year and not just on World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly

World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly 28 July 2024

The IV World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly will be celebrated on Sunday, 28 July 2024. The theme chosen by the Holy Father – “Do not cast me off in my old age” (cf. Psalm 71:9) – is meant to call attention to the fact that, sadly, loneliness is the bitter lot in life of many elderly persons, so often the victims of the throw-away culture.

In this year of preparation for the Jubilee, which the Holy Father wishes to be devoted to prayer, the theme of the World Day is taken from Psalm 71, the plea of an elderly person who reflects on the story of his friendship with God.

By cherishing the charisms of grandparents and the elderly, and the contribution they make to the life of the Church, the World Day seeks to support the efforts of every ecclesial community to forge bonds between the generations and to combat loneliness, in the awareness that – as Scripture states – “It is not good for man to be alone” (Gen 2:18).

And Jesus said to them, ‘A prophet is only despised in his own country, among his own relations and in his own house’

Suggested events and activities for the World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly 2024

- Plant a Tree in Their Memory
- Send or give a Grandparent or Elderly person a “Spiritual Bouquet” - A Spiritual Bouquet can be a card, homemade or store-bought letting a person know what prayers or sacrifices have been offered up for them.

Examples to be included in a Spiritual Bouquet:

- A certain number of a specific prayer – 10 Hail Mary's
- A Novena
- A Mass
- Rosary

Good deeds or sacrifices

- Shop for clean clothing for a person in need, fast for a meal, or skip dessert
- Enlist a Group to be part of a “Prayer Chain” - A Prayer Chain is a group of people committed to praying for a specific reason for a predetermined period of time. Contact can be by phone or online.
- Initiate an Essay Contest for pre-teens and teens - Choose a theme, for example, “How have your parents, Grandparents, or a significant adult in your life influenced your Faith?” How do you influence others?

- Children's Prayer Appeal: We invite children in schools or parishes to compose prayers in honour of their Grandparents. These are presented at the Offertory during Pilgrimage Masses.
- Book of Remembrance and Forget Me Not Flowers
- Starting a Ministry for Grandparents in your parish. You could launch it on the World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly!
