This Week We Offer A Special Prayer for... the less fortunate this Christmas season

Jesus, our guiding star, as we honour your birth this Christmas season, help us view the world through the wisdom and love you share.

Just as you embraced the humble, the overlooked, and the downtrodden, let us approach you with open and simple hearts. In this season of generosity, may we also keep in mind those who have less and need our kindness the most.

May they all be safe from harm today and filled with your love.

Amen.

Feast Days This Week

29th The Holy Family

30th St Tuallala

31st St Sylvester

Lord, come to the aid of Your people, who are supported by the intercession of St. Sylvester Your Pope. May they pass the present life under Your guidance so that they may have the happiness of attaining life in heaven.

1st Mary, The Holy Mother of God

2nd St Basil the Great

3rd St Munchin

4th St Dabeoc

Dear Lord, we thank you for giving us Your servant Dabeoc. Help us to imitate the devotion to You, he showed through the many penitential practices he instituted in his monastic life.

End-of-Year Message from the Nenagh Parish Pastoral Council

As we approach the close of another year, the Nenagh Parish Pastoral Council wishes to extend our heartfelt thanks to everyone who has contributed to the life of our parish. From our dedicated volunteers to all who join us in worship, prayer, and service, your commitment and faith are what make our community so special.

We are deeply grateful for the ways you have supported one another and the parish throughout the year, especially during times of challenge & celebration alike. As we look ahead, may the light of Christ guide us into a new year filled with hope, joy, & peace.

Wishing you and your families a blessed Christmas and a prosperous New Year.

— Nenagh Parish Pastoral Council

Leftover Christmas Presents

We trust you all had a Happy Christmas and everyone got at least one pressie that put a smile on your face? However, many of us often get two of the same thing, or something we had already or, let's face it, something we will never use or need! That's no reflection on the giver...it's just life!!! Nenagh Parish Office will, once again, with much discretion, accept your unwanted or leftover Christmas presents between 6-10 January. The following week we will distribute whatever we receive, to local nursing homes and charities.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

FROM EVERYONE IN NENAGH PARISH

OUR PARISH VOLUNTEERS

As we close another year, we extend our heartfelt gratitude to all our dedicated parish volunteers. Your time, talent, and unwavering service make our parish a place of faith, fellowship, and love. From liturgical ministries to community outreach, behind-the-scenes support, and countless acts of kindness, your efforts reflect Christ's presence among us. May God bless you abundantly for your generosity and commitment.

Thank you all!

In Nenagh Parish, we are blessed with one of the most outstanding Administrative teams working in 21st century Tipperary!!! Throughout the year, with efficiency and good humour, the staff in our Parish Office and Pastoral Centre go above and beyond to ensure the smooth operation of parish life. Whether assisting the public, supporting our priests, or handling a wide range of queries and needs, they do so with discretion, grace, and a kind word.

A heartfelt thank you to each and every one of you!

- From The Priests &
Pastoral Council

Our beloved Fr Rexon will celebrate Mass at 12 noon today to mark the Silver Jubilee of his ordination to the Priesthood

God bless you on your Silver Jubilee with happiness and peace and with His many wondrous gifts of joys that never cease. And through the days and years to come may He be at your side your guardian and protector your never failing guide.
