This Week We Offer A Special Prayer For ...the Fourth Sunday of Lent

Loving Creator of mine,
 I feel the pace quicken, the time draw near.
 I am filled with joy as I move toward Easter and the promised reconciliation with you.
 Teach me to follow the example of your Son,
 to be worthy of being called one his people:
 a Christ-ian.

Help me to live each day as he did turning hatred to love and conflict to peace.
 I await the new life with eagerness, faith and a deep gratitude. Amen.

(Bad) Dietary Advice

- If you eat something and no one sees you eat it, it has no calories.
- Anything consumed while standing has no calories. This is due to gravity and the density of the caloric mass.
- Anything consumed from someone else's plate has no calories since the calories rightfully belong to the other person and will cling to his/her plate.

[We have not authorised the publication of this mad advice in this newsletter and take no responsibility for any negative weighing scales outcomes!]

Fourth Sunday of Lent

*As long as the day lasts
 I must carry out the work of the one who sent me;
 the night will soon be here
 when no one can work.
 As long as I am in the world
 I am the light of the world.*

A MOTHER'S DAY PRAYER

Loving God, we thank you for the gift of motherhood and the many ways women nurture and care for us. Today, we pray for all mothers - those with us and those who have died.

We pray for those who have nurtured us, including stepmothers, foster mothers, grandmothers, and spiritual mothers. We remember those for whom this day is difficult: those who are grieving the loss of their mother, those who have lost a child, those who are struggling with infertility, and those separated from their families.

May we, as a parish community, support and uplift one another with your love.

We ask this through Christ our Lord,
Amen.

Paidir i nGaeilge do mhí an Mhárta Prayer in Irish for the month of March

Glory Be

Glóire don Athair, agus don Mhac is don Spriod Naomh,
 mar a bhí ar dtúis,
 mar atá fós,
 is mar a bheidh trí shaol na saol.
 Amen.

Today's Gospel...Quick Reflection

As disciples of Jesus, we are invited, to learn from the example of the blind man in today's gospel, and open our hearts fully to the light of Christ.
