Pope Leo's Prayer Intention for June 2026

Pope Leo XIV has urged Catholics across the globe to join him this June in praying for the values of sports.

He released the monthly "Pray with the Pope" video on Thursday, which is prepared by the Pope's Worldwide Prayer Network.

In his prayer, the Pope recognized the great benefits but also the inherent challenges in the world of sport, and prayed that sporting events may promote peace and fraternity.

School of fraternity, peace, and encounter

He thanks the Lord for "the gift of sport, for those who glorify God through the exercise of their bodies, for the friendships born on the field, and the joy of playing as a team."

As Pope Leo recalls how the Lord teaches us "that in life, as in the game, no one is saved alone," the Holy Father insists we "need others to grow, to learn respect, to overcome our limits, and to celebrate together the victories we achieve."

Thus, Pope Leo prays that sport "may always be a school of fraternity, not of empty rivalry, a space of encounter, not exclusion, a path of peace, not violence."

Uniting people and growing closer to Christ

"May those who play, train or cheer," the Pope said, "discover in sport a universal language that brings cultures together, unites peoples, and sows respect, solidarity, and personal growth."

He also prays that every sport "become a parable of life lived with you, working with joy and effort, living with humility in defeat and with gratitude in the victory you offer in your Resurrection."

"May your Spirit," the Holy Father concluded, "never be lacking in us, making us one team, united with you to build communion and fraternity in history."

This Week We Offer A Special Prayer

...for safety on our travels

A Prayer to St. Christopher

St. Christopher,
faithful servant of God and protector of travellers,
Guide my steps and steady my path.
Watch over me on roads, in skies, and across waters,
That I may reach my destination in safety and peace.
Shield me from harm, danger, and distraction,
And grant me patience and kindness toward all I meet
along the way.
May my journey be a blessing,
And my return be filled with gratitude.
Through Christ our Lord,
Amen.

Sisters In Solidarity - Handbags of Love

Sincere thanks to all who donated and attended the 'Sisters in Solidarity night - Handbags of Love' in St Mary's Portroe. We are delighted with the response and all the handbags here have been donated to worthy causes. Special thanks to the Choir who supported our night, the dance of Bernadette Flynn's troop, all the participants from Ascend and SCAP projects who gave input on the night. Thanks to Tom and Nora and especially the 'Celebrating Women' group who spearheaded, prepared and delivered prayer gathering. May your hearts go from strength to strength. Special thanks to Anna Kelly's Chemist and Julie Coyle for their beauty/hygiene products.

About the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Originally called Corpus Christi [the Body of Christ], the solemnity had its origins in thirteenth-century France. St. Juliana (1192 - 1258) was the abbess at the Augustinian Sisters at Mont Carvillon near Liege in Belgium. After a vision, she persuaded Bishop Robert de Thorte of Liege to institute a feast to the Blessed Sacrament; he established it in 1246. The feast was extended to the universal Church by Pope Urban IV in 1264. Pope Clement V (d. 1314) and Pope John XXII (d. 1334) formalized the celebrations further.

None of those three popes mention a procession with the Blessed Sacrament. It first appears in Cologne around 1279 and the idea was approved by Popes Martin V (d.1431) and Eugene IV (d.1447). The texts for the Divine Office for this feast were composed by St. Thomas Aquinas (1225-1274).

Since the Second Vatican Council, the feast has been called "The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ." The name change is significant. The emphasis is no longer on the Blessed Sacrament reserved in the tabernacle and presented for adoration by the faithful. The emphasis is on the celebration of the Eucharist. Indeed, the preface from Holy Thursday is used. In the Collect (Opening Prayer), we acknowledge that we "revere the sacred mysteries" of the Body and Blood of Christ, and that through this sacrament, we experience redemption.

Thank You from the Franciscan Missionaries of Mary

A thousand thanks for your kindness and warm welcome at the weekend. I enjoyed the visit to Nenagh. The people in Nenagh came across as being warm and welcoming not to mention generous. Giving us an amount of €5,910.02 speaks for itself. This was from St. Mary's and St. John's. May I ask you to please thank them on our behalf and assure them of the prayers of the Sisters here in Limerick. I assure you also of our prayers and ask for a remembrance in yours. Peace and Blessings,

Sr. Nuala Glynn fmm
