This Week We Offer A Special Prayer ...for summer blessings

May you walk with God
This summer
In whatever you do
Wherever you go
Walking with God means...
Walking with honesty
And with courage,
Walking with love
And respect
And concern for the feelings of others
May you talk to God
This summer
And every day and
In every situation
Talking with God means...
Praying words of praise
For the beauty of creation
Saying prayers of thanks
For friends and good times,
Asking God's help
In all your decisions
Expressing sorrow
When you have failed
May you talk with God
Every day.
Amen.

Just as a planted seed starts to grow, the word of God starts to deepen and grow within a person.

Some people are too concerned with what others think and they worry too much. They may be jealous, angry or concerned with materialism.

Some people have strong faith and remain dedicated to a Christian lifestyle, even when things are difficult.

Today's Gospel Takeaways - The Parable of the Sower

Called by God, We Gather With Christ and One Another: all are welcome, all are wanted, all are needed

As baptised members of the Church, we are part of a faith community called by God. When we gather for Mass on a Sunday, we do so in response to God's personal invitation to each one of us. Even before the Mass begins, each of us is called, welcome, wanted and needed.

We are not here to simply 'get Mass'. As Catholics, on a Sunday we are called to join with the rest of our community to offer our worship, our praise and thanksgiving to God. We are here to celebrate Mass – this inserts us into the heart of the Mass, calling all of us to be active participants rather than silent spectators. That is why we need to come ready to pray, ready to be attentive to the words and actions that unfold in our midst.

And when we gather in the name of the Lord, we know that Christ is with us. For Christ told us where two or three are gathered in his name that he is there. (Matthew 18:20) From the beginning of Mass, therefore, we are invited to welcome Christ present in his people. Look around next time you are at Mass and see the face of Christ in those who have gathered with you!

Why Sunday Matters:

An Invitation to Reflect on Sunday Mass

Sunday has always been the day of the Lord: the day of resurrection, the day of rest, the day of Eucharist. From the very beginning of our Christian faith, Sunday has been central to the life of the Church and remains the heart of Christian practice. It is on this day that we gather as a community, united in our love for Christ, to encounter the risen Lord and be nourished in body and soul.

The Mass is not just a ritual, it is the source and summit of our faith. It is where we encounter Christ in His living presence, and it is through the Eucharist that we are strengthened to live as true disciples. Attending Mass on Sundays, or its vigil on Saturday evening, is not just an obligation; it is a profound privilege and a chance to experience God's love in a deeply personal way. As we come to this sacred celebration let us do so with hearts full of gratitude for the precious gift of Christ's presence among us.

Our invitation to reflect on Sunday Mass is presented through the lens of Synodality – Communion, Participation, and Mission – reminding us that the Eucharist is not just a personal encounter with Christ but also a communal experience that unites us all as the People of God. For deeper reflection, we have also provided thoughtful questions at the end of this message to guide your prayers and meditations.
